

In-Motion Pro Underarm - Part # and Description

Part # - MWD6000G (grey), MWD6000B (blue), MWD6000R (red)

Description - Millennial In-Motion Pro Short Crutch: Available in grey, blue, and red. Our spring assisted technology absorbs impact and returns positive energy, with no underarm jamming. The crutch is designed to support good posture and the ergonomic hand grips keep the wrist in a natural position, avoiding the “kinking” that occurs with traditional crutches. In addition the In-Motion Pro folds to make it the most convenient crutch for travel and storage. With a tips that last 35% longer than traditional tips and the strut made from aircraft grade aluminum that can support users up to 400lbs, these crutches are made to last. The Short In-Motion Pro sizing is as follows – Floor to Underarm Cradle adjust from 42.5” to 50.5” with 9 different height positions (approx. users 4’6” to 5’6”). The Handles also adjust from 11.5” to 16” below the cradle with 4 different positions. SIZING - Standing upright with good posture, hands to the side, and measure from the floor to the underarm. Using this measurement look at the range of cradle heights and be certain the measurement is within the range of this crutch.

Part # - MWD6500G (grey), MWD6500B (blue), MWD6500R (red)

Description - Millennial In-Motion Pro Tall Crutch: Available in grey, blue, and red. Our spring assisted technology absorbs impact and returns positive energy, with no underarm jamming. The crutch is designed to support good posture and the ergonomic hand grips keep the wrist in a natural position, avoiding the “kinking” that occurs with traditional crutches. In addition the In-Motion Pro folds to make it the most convenient crutch for travel and storage. With a tips that last 35% longer than traditional tips and the strut made from aircraft grade aluminum that can support users up to 400lbs, these crutches are made to last. The Tall In-Motion Pro sizing is as follows – Floor to Underarm Cradle adjust from 50” to 62.5” with 13 different height positions (approx. users 5’6” to 6’10”). The Handles also adjust from 14” to 21” below the cradle with 5 different positions. SIZING - Standing upright with good posture, hands to the side, and measure from the floor to the underarm. Using this measurement look at the range of cradle heights and be certain the measurement is within the range of this crutch.

Part # - MWD5500G (grey)

Description - Millennial In-Motion Pro Tall Extended Crutch: Available in grey. Our spring assisted technology absorbs impact and returns positive energy, with no underarm jamming. The crutch is designed to support good posture and the ergonomic hand grips keep the wrist in a natural position, avoiding the “kinking” that occurs with traditional crutches. In addition the In-Motion Pro folds to make it the most convenient crutch for travel and storage. With a tips that last 35% longer than traditional tips and the strut made from aircraft grade aluminum that can support users up to 400lbs, these crutches are made to last. The Extended Tall In-Motion Pro sizing is as follows – Floor to Underarm Cradle adjust from 54” to 66” with 13 different height positions (approx. users 5’10” to 7’3”). The Handles also adjust from 15” to 21” below the cradle with 5 different positions.

In-Motion Forearm - Part # and Description

Part # - MWD7000BK (black), MWD7000B (blue), MWD7000R (red)

Description - Millennial In-Motion Forearm Short Crutch: Available in black, blue, and red. Our spring assisted technology absorbs impact and returns positive energy to assist the user. The crutch is designed to support good posture and the ergonomic hand grips keep the wrist in a natural position, avoiding the “kinking” that occurs with traditional crutches. With a tips that last 35% longer than traditional tips and the strut made from aircraft grade aluminum that can support users up to 400lbs, these crutches are made to last. The Short In-Motion Forearm is as follows – Floor to Handle adjusts from 21” to 28.5” with 8 different height positions (approx. users 3’6” to 5’). The forearm cuff also has 3 height positions, to allow the cuff to be in a comfortable position. SIZING - Grip a pen or pencil in your hand. Standing upright with good posture, measure from the floor to the pen or pencil gripped in your hand. Using this measurement look at the range of handle heights between the short and tall forearm crutches, wherever your measurement falls is the crutch size you should use.

Part # - MWD7500BK (black), MWD7500B (blue), MWD7500R (red)

Description - Millennial In-Motion Forearm Tall Crutch: Available in black, blue, and red. Our spring assisted technology absorbs impact and returns positive energy to assist the user. The crutch is designed to support good posture and the ergonomic hand grips keep the wrist in a natural position, avoiding the “kinking” that occurs with traditional crutches. With a tips that last 35% longer than traditional tips and the strut made from aircraft grade aluminum that can support users up to 400lbs, these crutches are made to last. The Tall In-Motion Forearm is as follows – Floor to Handle adjusts from 28” to 40” with 13 different height positions (approx. users 5’ to 6’6”). The forearm cuff also has 4 height positions, to allow the cuff to be in a comfortable position. SIZING - Grip a pen or pencil in your hand. Standing upright with good posture, measure from the floor to the pen or pencil gripped in your hand. Using this measurement look at the range of handle heights between the short and tall forearm crutches, wherever your measurement falls is the crutch size you should use.

Advantage Underarm - Part # and Description

Part # - MWD4000G (grey), MWD4000B (blue), MWD4000R (red)

Description - Millennial Advantage Short Crutch: Available in grey, blue, and red. The Advantage crutch is designed to support good posture and the ergonomic hand grips keep the wrist in a natural position, avoiding the “kinking” that occurs with traditional crutches. In addition the unique folding feature makes this the most convenient crutch for travel and storage. With a tips that last 35% longer than traditional tips and the strut made from aircraft grade aluminum that can support users up to 400lbs, these crutches are made to last. The Short Advantage Crutch sizing is as follows – Floor to Underarm Cradle adjust from 41.5” to 50” with 9 different height positions (approx. users 4’6” to 5’6”). The Handles also adjust from 11.5” to 16” below the cradle with 4 different positions. SIZING - Standing upright with good posture, hands to the side, measure from the floor to the underarm. Using this measurement look at the range of cradle heights and be certain the measurement is within the range of this crutch.

Part # - MWD4500G (grey), MWD4500B (blue), MWD4500R (red)

Description - Millennial Advantage Tall Crutch: Available in grey, blue, and red. The Advantage crutch is designed to support good posture and the ergonomic hand grips keep the wrist in a natural position, avoiding the “kinking” that occurs with traditional crutches. In addition the unique folding feature makes this the most convenient crutch for travel and storage. With a tips that last 35% longer than traditional tips and the strut made from aircraft grade aluminum that can support users up to 400lbs, these crutches are made to last. The Tall Advantage Crutch sizing is as follows – Floor to Underarm Cradle adjust from 49” to 61.5” with 13 different height positions (approx. users 5’7” to 6’10”). The Handles also adjust from 14” to 20” below the cradle with 5 different positions. SIZING - Standing upright with good posture, hands to the side, measure from the floor to the underarm. Using this measurement look at the range of cradle heights and be certain the measurement is within the range of this crutch.