

Surgical Drapes and Towels

McKesson Surgical Drapes and Towels are designed to be used by operating room staff during surgical procedures. They feature a 3" fenestration or opening that creates a sterile, surgical field and a repellent inner poly layer that helps to prevent moisture strikethrough. McKesson Surgical Drapes and Towels are individually packaged, and come in a poly-lined, non-fenestrated option.

Features and Benefits

- Durable paper material for quick and easy draping
- Intended for single patient use
- Not made with natural rubber latex
- Available in white
